SO FAR as we are informed Judge Jas. P. Miller and County Attorney W. H. Barnes have invariably been two of the three members of the iron bridge construction committees and by reason of that fact are possibly in a position to explain how that competition does not cheapen the price when it is an iron bridge that is being bought.

AT a meeting of the bridge building committees held at the office of Judge Miller last Friday, of which Mr. Wysong, the representative of the Champion Bridge Co., seemed to be an honorary member, we are informed, the contract for the building of the three iron bridges ordered at a recent call session of the Fiscal Court was awarded to the Champion Bridge Co., Mr. Wysong voting in favor of the award. It was not generally known that the committees would meet and no one except the members were present. It is generally believed that the trade for the bridges was practically agreed on at the time the Champion Bridge Co.'s man was here a few weeks ago, and the meeting last Friday was called to complete or consumation that trade.

The Champion Bridge Co.'s man remained in secret consultation with Judge Miller for some time after the committees had adjourned and the members thereof had left. The prices agreed on have not been reported.

BRIDGE QUESTIONS STILL NOT ANSWERED.

After persistent entreaty, persuasion, coaxing, cajoling and interrogation for a period of more than three months and by employing all known means that might move the mind or passion of man, to influence the members of the Democratic ticket who have always constituted the self appointed working majority of the building committees that have had the various iron bridges constructed in the county during the past few years or some one for them to explain what the bridges have cost and why they have not been built by contracts let to the lowest bidders at public outcry, THE REPUBLICAN has at last induced the Hartford Herald to feebly and pitifully say:

"As information for THE HART-FORD REPUBLICAN, we will state that there has been a saving of more than 10 per cent. on the bridges built in the county in the last seven years, and more than 25 per cent. on the building of the abutments. Now, either show this is incorrect or shut up about 'public outcry,' 'letting by secret bids,' etc."

The Herald and the ticket for which it speaks would be very glad indeed if we would shut up about "public outcry," "letting by secret bids, etc," but we will not, so long as it and its ticket refuse to answer these questions with more satisfaction and intelligence than they have yet done. We have been unable to learn from the public records—and these public matters should be open to the public—or any other source what has really been paid for these bridges and it is impossible for the Herald or anyone to know what percent. has been saved or to have any definite knowledge approaching that point unless the actual cost can in some way be ascertained. In any event the Herald, the Democratic ticket or any of its members will do us and the voting public a great favor if they will explain that competition does not cheapen the price of an article even an iron bridge.

Red Men's Pow-Wow.

Warsaw Tribe No. 73 Independent Order of Red Men entertained the McHenry and Central City tribes at tribal headquarters at Rockport last Saturday night. Many visiting brethren from different sections of the county were present and enjoyed the work, as well as the corn and venison prepared for them. A most enjoyable time was afforded.
